

LOHIRANTA'S FARM

You are most welcome to come stay in Farm Lohiranta. Farm Lohiranta is located by the River Ounasjoki, 4 kilometres from Tepasto village. We offer our guests two first-rate riverside cottages and a variety of activities and interests within the surrounding region. The farmyard includes traditional Lappish hut, beach, rental boats, cows and the northernmost sea-buckthorn berry plantation in the world. Fishing permits for the River Ounasjoki are also available.

ACCOMODATION

Farm Lohiranta offers two fully-equipped cottages on a beautiful location by the River Ounasjoki. Both high-quality cottages have a five-star rating issued by Finnish authorities. Each cottage has a floor area of 97m² (1,044 sq feet) and sleeps 8 people. The whole complex can accommodate groups of up to sixteen individuals.

Our kota, a traditional Lappish hut, is at your disposal. It is the perfect setting for fun-filled evening gatherings of grilling sausages or preparing delicious smoked fish. Feel free to use our row boat if you wish to take a row on the River Ounasjoki. You can also use our riverside lean-to, located only 1 kilometre from the farm, near excellent fishing spots and a marshland full of cloudberry. You can make your way there by boat, snowmobile or by skiing.

ACTIVITIES

Farm Lohiranta is perfectly located to offer a wide range of activities and interests. You can explore a number of exciting activities or simply enjoy the tranquillity of unspoilt Finnish wilderness. The surrounding region provides an excellent setting for gathering wild berries and mushrooms and the marshland nearby is simply dotted with golden cloudberry just waiting to be picked. You can also try fishing, hiking and skiing, or go for a spin on a snowmobile. On top of all, our farm is located only 30km from Levi fell and 35km from Pallas fell.
